Today was a very special day for our Communications Officer Brandi Stephens as she was recognized at the 2022 Excellence in EMS Awards for Spokane County. She was chosen by the Spokane County EMS Council for her excellent work with two specific incidents where she provided amazing service to our citizens: a CPR save involving an infant and one involving an elderly person. Both of these calls were recognized by the citizens she served for her expertise, her compassion, and her dedication. We are so proud of Brandi the work she did in these two incidences, as well as the work she does everyday.

Brandi is shown with EMS Council Chair Tom Chavez, SREC Executive Director Lori Markham, and with the Operations Leadership Team at SREC.

Congratulations Brandi! You are amazing!
